

UNITED THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY
OF THE TWIN CITIES

DIPLOMA IN ADVANCED THEOLOGICAL STUDIES
Scholarship Agreement

Students must agree to the following terms to receive the scholarship.
Must be co-signed by an official of the sponsoring church.

1. Scholarship: If you are selected to receive a scholarship, the seminary provides:

♦ Tuition and seminary fees	♦ Medical insurance
♦ Furnished apartment	♦ A monthly stipend for food, phone, local transportation, and incidental living expenses
♦ Utilities
♦ Books
2. Student's financial responsibilities: The student and the sponsoring church are responsible for air transportation to and from home and for any financial obligations and/or debt incurred at home while the student is studying in the United States.
3. Families: United Theological Seminary can make no grants for the support of a student's family. It is expected that this will be the responsibility of the student and his or her sponsoring church.
4. Independent living: The student must be able and prepared to live independently. The student is expected to do his or her own cooking, cleaning, and typing of papers. The seminary provides an equipped kitchen, a typewriter, and access to a computer.
5. Employment: Consistent with the program of intensive study, students shall not engage in employment for pay during the academic year.
6. Solicitation of funds, honoraria, unsolicited gifts: Unless specifically authorized by the Scholarship Committee of United Theological Seminary, a student may not solicit funds or other benefits to further his or her personal purposes or church projects during the period of her or his scholarship. Any unsolicited gifts may be regarded as part of the scholarship and deducted from the other benefits.
7. Automobiles: Students are not permitted to own an automobile while in the United States.
8. Denominational approval: United Theological Seminary requires the approval of the candidate's church and, in some cases, the proper mission board.
9. Limit of one year: The student must agree to return for service in the home church upon completion of studies and other approved activities. Failure to return as promised will require full repayment of scholarship.

I have read the above terms, and agree to abide by them.
