

FEASTING ON THE WORD: EASTER THROUGH PENTECOST 2012
SATURDAY, MARCH 3, 2012
9:00 AM – 12 NOON
MAYFLOWER CHURCH, UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

Rev. Dr. David Bartlett

This is a one-time opportunity to explore the use of the commentary, Feasting on the Word, with one of its co-editors, Rev. Dr. David Bartlett. David currently is professor of New Testament at Columbia Theological Seminary in Decatur, Ga., and Lantz professor emeritus, Yale University. Formerly he was the associate dean of academic affairs and Lantz professor of preaching and communication, Yale Divinity School. David is a friend, colleague, professor, and mentor to several clergy here in Minnesota. He was senior minister of University Baptist Church (UBC), Minneapolis, 1973-1975, where he will be preaching on Sunday, March 4.

This is a free seminar. It is intended primarily for clergy, but others are welcome to attend. David says, “We will look together at the assigned readings for the time after Easter with special attention to the Gospel lessons. The morning will combine presentation and conversation.”

Space is limited. Advanced registration is requested by e-mailing Rev. Howard Bell at hbell@mayflowermpls.org or by calling 612.824.0762 x140. Deadline for registration is Monday, February 27.
